

For Flag and Country

—Words by—

Mrs. Erma Clarke

—Music by—

Harry A. Dinsmore

5

The Milburn Music Publishing Co.
Skowhegan, Me.

FOR FLAG AND COUNTRY

Words by
MRS. ERMA CLARKE

Music by
HARRY A. DINSMORE

VOICE

Moderato

PIANO

mf p mf

mf

1. They were
2. She is

cresc.

roam-ing by the riv-er, and the ros-es were in bloom, When he told her that he lov'd her fond and stroll-ing by the riv-er, and the leaves are fall-ing down, There she's wait-ing for her sol-dier boy's recresc.

p

true; But her heart was fill'd with sor-row as he said that on the mor-row He must turn; Her heart is sad and wea-ry, and the days are nev-er cheer-y, For the

p

f

leave her then his coun-try's work to do. Do not ask me not to go dear. These one who went a-way her heart does yearn. But his du-ty call'd him from her. A were the words he said, When my coun - try calls it must not be in vain. Let your sol - dier staunch and true. There he stands be-side his com-rades good and brave. When the heart dear not be wea-ry, make the days all bright and cheery, I'll re - turn, sweet heart, when Au-tumn comes a - gain.

mf

Au - tumn leaves are fall - ing off her lone - ly heart is call - ing For - one who all for flag and coun - try gave.

REFRAIN

When the leaves be - gin to fall be - side the riv - er, And the

f song - bird sweet - ly war - ble glad re - frain, Then my lit - tle girl so true I'll be

mf

march - ing home to you, I'll re - turn dear when the Au-tumn comes a - gain.

SUNRISE WITH THE MASTER

Words by
ELIZABETH POWERS MERRILL

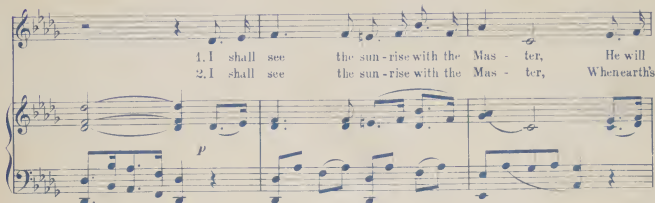

Music by
HARRY A. DINSMORE

Moderato Religioso

PIANO mf

1. I shall see the sun-rise with the Mas - ter, He will
2. I shall see the sun-rise with the Mas - ter, When earth's wait for me at Heav-en's door, He will show to me that glorious wear - y night has pass'd a - way, All my tears His lov - ing hand shall ei - ty, Where a - bide Gods chil-dren ev - er more. I shall gath - er, Pearls for me to wear that gra-cious day. I shall

Copyright, 1914, by Harry A. Dinsmore

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES